

Welcome to Business Engaged Learners Evening

Why have you been considered as passive learners?

- Attending lessons but not engaging in the lesson
- Not completing tasks on a regular basis –sometimes not even attempting tasks
- Not challenging yourself – choosing the easy part of the task and no more.
- Arriving to lesson tired or lazy

It is not because of ability

What can the student do to improve their B4L within Business?

It isn't big changes!!

- Shift their Mind-set;
  - Take ownership of their learning – it is their GCSE!
  - Come to lesson prepared to work and to work hard.
  - Positive Attitude – they don't need to LOVE business, but do need to engage in it.
  - Resilient Attitude – it doesn't matter if they don't understand first time.
- Turn up to lessons on time with correct equipment.
- Learn key terms and calculation formulae – all on the SLE.
- Complete Homework – Always on 'Showmyhomework'
- Attend Business interventions when they come up.
- Start Revision Early!

What can be done at home to support the progress in Business?

- Complete homework to the best of your ability.
- Learn key terms and definitions.
- Learn calculation formulae
- Get parents to test you
- Learn key business concepts. Get parents to test you.
- Learn calculation formulae – all on the SLE.
- Do exam questions
- Engage with the business world

Useful Websites & Resources

Useful Websites and Resources:

- Tutor2.co.uk – Good for help with business concepts and theory
- Edexcel 9-1 Revision Guide and Edexcel 9-1 workbook (each £6 on from school or can be ordered from Amazon)
- Wakeuptomoney podcast BBC 5 live
- <https://www.tutor2u.net/business/blog>
- Tutor2u podcasts on EDEXCEL GCSE business exam skills
- Youtube tutor2u tutorials for models and theories – usually about 7-8 mins long
- BBC Bitesize – good for key topics like finance/motivation/organisational structure
- Your notes
- The text book

GCSE Business

Paper 1: Friday 24th May 2019 (before half term)

Paper 2: Thursday 4th June 2019 AM

All papers are worth 90 marks and last 1 hour 30 minutes.

Contacts

- Miss Kerr, Head of Business
- Mr Hughes, Head of Faculty