INSPIRED TO ACHIEVE FAIR - REMINDER

Don't forget the Fullbrook 6 Inspired to Achieve fair takes place on Wednesday 29th June between 5-7pm.

This is a fantastic opportunity to view the projects our students have worked on, and for students to find out more about the programme which they could be part of when they join Fullbrook 6. Students will present their projects at stations around the hall throughout the evening and look forward to answering your questions.

This is a 'drop in event' so you don't need to book to attend. See page 5 for further details.

FULLBROOK PRIDE MONTH UPDATE

Pride Stall: This week, there has also been a Pride stall running at lunchtime where students can buy various themed items to show their support for equality here at Fullbrook.

Competition: Our month of Pride activities continues with a competition that was launched with students at the start of the week. This is an opportunity for everyone to get really creative about how they celebrate pride and the LGBTQ+ community. Entry deadline is Friday 24 June, and please see the poster on page 3 for full details.

Mufti Day: There will now be a mufti day on Friday 24 June for students Fullbrook Pride Non-Uniform Day . Staff and students alike are encouraged to support our efforts to complete the Equalities Wall Art by donating £1 and wearing bright colours and/or rainbows for the day. House points will be available for each item of clothing that is a bright colour, or has a rainbow on it. The usual rules for appropriate clothes will apply, and there will be a reminder of these given to students during tutor time.

Click the symbols below to view the Fullbrook Facebook & Twitter pages or the Fullbrook 6 Instagram account.

It is therefore vital that students with exams on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday next week make alternative arrangements to arrive for their exams on time. Please contact the Year 11 team if this presents a problem.

Teachers - Some staff live a long way from the school and travel by train. We are attempting to make alternative arrangements for them. However, if this is not possible, any staff who cannot get to school on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next week will teach lessons remotely and classes will be supervised to support students to work with their usual teacher via Teams.

FULLBROOK YEAR 8 ARTISTS HELP CREATE MURAL

Year 8 have been working on an Environmental Art Project and as part of that, designs by 22 students were selected to provide inspiration for a mural which will go on a wall near West Byfleet station. Last week the students met with the artist who will create the mural. During their session, they identified elements that are key to the local area, which will be incorporated.

When the mural is being created/complete, we will share more details with you, but in the meantime, please see page 4 for some pictures of the artist's visit with the students.

YEAR 9 ARTWORK

The year 9 art class have been working hard to create distorted self-portraits using acrylic paint - for many this was their first time using this media! It required a lot of patience and perseverance from each of them when mixing skin tones and matching colours to their own manipulated photographs. It was a task outside many of their comfort zones but it's clear they certainly rose to the challenge and the Art Department are extremely proud of their outcomes. Take a look for yourself on page 4.

LRC SPOTLIGHT

This week we would like to highlight a great read from our June reading list of LGBTQ+ books.

In My Brother's name is Jessica by John Boyne, we meet Sam Waver who has always been a loner: bullied, struggling at school, and has parents who have very little time for him. The one person he has always been able to rely on is his beloved older sibling, Jason - but when they announce that they are transitioning, Sam's life is thrown upside down. He's convinced nothing will ever be the same again - but as Sam is about to discover, nothing is more constant than love.

My Brother's name is Jessica has been described as a moving and heartfelt portrait of one family's journey to acceptance and a must read for all ages.

Available to borrow from the LRC.
